

INFORMATION & REFERRAL (I & R)

Call or stop by our office for phone numbers, directions and information regarding organizations on the installation as well as those in our community. Our outstanding resource files can provide you with the latest information for many organizations and provide referral information for off post assistance.

1. Army Community Service Bulletin

Our monthly Bulletin provides information regarding the programs at ACS. You will find articles as well as information regarding upcoming classes and activities. If you would like to receive the Bulletin by mail or email, call and we will add you to the mailing list.

2. Interviewing & Assessment

In-processing and out-processing is handled by I & R for arriving and departing military personnel. Families are invited to stop by and receive information welcoming them to the area.
